Hello Jon,

As Councillor Cummings will already know, as part of the launch of English Heritage's campaign to protect conservation areas, English Heritage asked if the Counties Residents' Association campaign could be used as a case study. The Wanstead Society were also asked to participate but asked that we lead on it.

I attach a copy of the article and ask that it be handed to members of the Conservation Advisory Panel for their information, as the final paragraph refers to Chepstow.

regards,

Helen Zammett

PS Do I have a 2 minute timing for my talk on Monday?
Have Telford asked to speak/attend?
