Dear Mr Goodwin,

I enclose just over 2,000 signatures regarding residents' opposition to the proposal to close Wanstead Police Station, which I hope will meet the Borough's requirements in order to secure a debate at the 20 September Council Meeting.

I am the lead petitioner and the request is:

- a) For the Council to lobby Boris Johnson not to close Wanstead Police Station, while demanding that the report on London's police stations be placed in the public domain, followed by a full public consultation on the issue.
- b) To ascertain where the Wanstead Safer Neighbourhood Team will be stationed, along with the Burglary Squad and members of the Rapid Response Team and how the service would be delivered.

Yours sincerely,

Helen E Zammett
