Following the incident at Parsons Green, the Metropolitan Police has enhanced the level of officers on our streets to protect all our communities across the capital.

Over the next few days people will see an increased number of officers on duty - both armed and unarmed - who will provide a highly visible, reassurance presence across London.

This will continue for as long as is necessary.

Investigations continue by our Counter Terrorism Unit into Friday's incident.

To report anything suspicious to call 0800 789 321
